

Triple C Carving Group Newsletter

April 23rd, 2025

30 Carvers attended today's meeting.

Important Note: Hall opens at 8:30 AM. The meeting will start at 9:00 AM. We have the Hall till 12:00 pm

Treasurer's Report: No report today.

Cookies: Thank you Susan and Judy for goodies this week. Next week is Colin M.

Guests: Logan and Joe were here today to inform us that Richard Higgins passed away on Monday, April 21st. Arrangements have now been finalized for the Celebration of Life. It will be held at the Navy Club on Saturday, June 7th between noon and 4PM.

Website: Dennis encourages all members to send in their carving photos. He will make sure your carving photos are added to your webpage. Simply email him your photos.

Business:

Birthdays – Happy Birthday to Brian S., Gary W. and our Grace W. out in cow-town.

Bark Carving Contest – Reminder that the bark carving contest is next week.

Year-End BBQ – A volunteer is needed to look after purchasing the burgers and a volunteer is needed to man the BBQ. Thank you Doug C. for stepping up. We will determine the head count for the June 11th BBQ in a few weeks time.

Japan talk – On May 7th, Judy will be connecting the dots for us between Japan and her comfort birds she has been accumulating. We look forward to hearing more about it all.

Pattern give-away – Randy brought in some patterns from wood carving magazines. Please help yourself to this bounty.

Next Year's Club Executives – Wayne clarified for us that next year he will be club President and Garry will be the club Vice-President.

Tech talk: None today.
